Denver Colo., March 14.-With a dozen or more trains east and westbound stailed in snow drifts in the vicinity of the Kanaus-Colorado state line, the local offices of the Union Pacific early today announced that all trains easthound would be annulled for the time being.

The Rock Island morning trains, eastbound, were also annulled upon reports that a beavy snowstorm, driven by a high wind, was prevailing from Limon, Colo., to Phillipsburg, Kansas, In several places the snow was higher than the conches. One train is aftick in a huge drift three miles east of Rexford, Kansas, and three trains from Chicago and one from Kansas City, all westbound, are stalled at Selden, Kansas. These trains will have to be shoveled out, say Rock Island officials when the storm subsides. The Rock Island train that left here yesterday morning is reported anowhound near
